SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background Summary

On July 24, 1995, EPA proposed to revise certain testing methods used in complying with the requirements of subtitle C of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) of 1976, as amended. EPA also proposed to add several new testing methods that may be used in complying with the requirements of subtitle C of RCRA. These new and revised methods, designated as Update III, were proposed to be added to the Third Edition of the EPA-approved test methods manual "Test Methods for Evaluating Solid Waste, Physical/Chemical Methods," EPA Publication SW-846. In addition, EPA proposed to delete several obsolete methods from SW-846 and the RCRA regulations. The comment period was to end on September 25, 1995. However, due to problems involving the distribution of the Proposed Update III package, the Agency has decided to extend the comment period to December 21, 1995.

Dated: September 15, 1995.

Montana; Final Approval of State Underground Storage Tank Program

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Notice of Tentative Determination on Application of State of Montana for Final Approval, Public Hearing and Public Comment Period.

SUMMARY: The State of Montana has applied for final approval of its underground storage tank program under Subtitle I of the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA). The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has reviewed the Montana application and has made the tentative decision that Montana's underground storage tank (UST) program satisfies all of the requirements necessary to qualify for final approval. Notably, the State of Montana's statute authorizes the issuance of regulations that are broader in scope than the Federal regulations. EPA intends to grant final approval to the State to operate its program in lieu of the Federal program. The State of Montana's application for final approval is available for public review and comment.

DATES: All comments on Montana's final approval application must be received by the close of business on October 23, 1995. The public hearing is tentatively scheduled for November 13, 1995.
